Join Us for the Keys to the Community Rally!

Mothers' Day, Sunday, May 11, 2025; 1:00 – 3:30 PM

Upper Senate Park, Washington, D.C.

This powerful, family-friendly rally kicks off ADAPT's new Keys to Community Living campaign for disability justice and community integration. Joining ADAPT will be The National Council on Independent Living, Caring Across Generations, Partnership for Inclusive Disaster Strategies, Autistic Self Advocates Network, Legal Defense Fund, American Association of People with Disabilities, ADA Watch and more.

Most importantly, grassroots activists from around the country will share their stories about struggle and perseverance in local efforts to obtain the Keys to Community Living.

Though our message is critical and threats are dire, there will be songs and skits and interactive fun for all. Come on out and celebrate Mothers and caregiving everywhere by supporting the Keys to Community Living!

Your voice matters—bring your signs, bring your passion, and bring the whole family. Let's unlock the doors to true inclusion—together! Because access to community is a right, not a privilege!
