

JUSTICE:

RELEASE, RE-ENTRY, & RE-INTEGRATION

RE-ENTRY PROJECT

SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION AFTER INCARCERATION

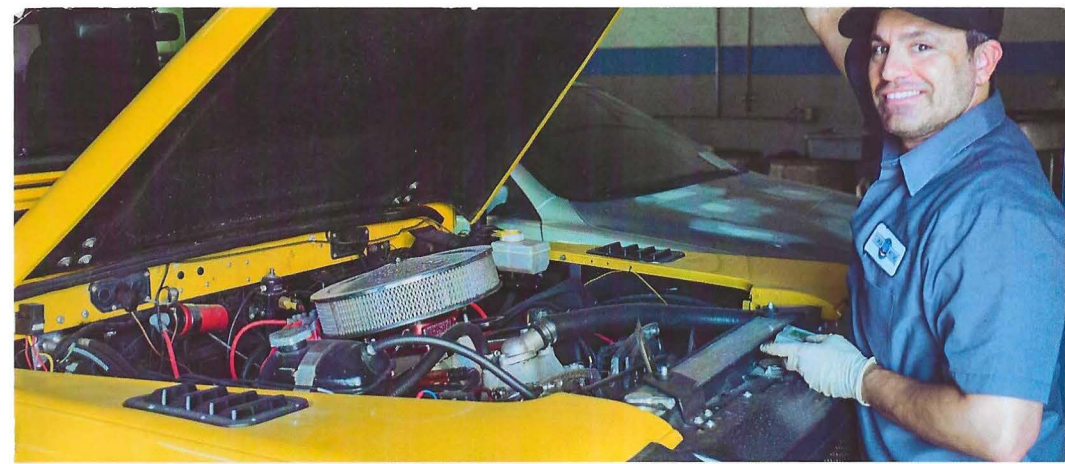

People who experience a disability deserve equal opportunities and are the best experts at determining what's best for them.

INDIVIDUAL RE-ENTRY PROGRAM

Our Community Inclusion Specialists establish relationships with justice-involved individuals, listen to their goals for re-entry, and develop an Individualized Re-entry Plan (IRP) that centers on empowering individuals in their goals for success.

WHAT WE'RE HERE FOR

The main goal of the Re-entry Program is to reduce recidivism such that at least 80% of participants live in the community successfully.

WHAT WE OFFER

- + Housing Referrals
- + Employment Assistance
- + Access to Programs (SUITcessful, Food Pantry, etc.)
- + Benefits Assistance & Counseling
- + Free Access to Individualized GED Training & Testing
- + Independent Living Skills Training
- + Behavioral/Mental Health Resource Information
- + Peer Recovery Support Services & Mentoring

Despite the frequent success stories of former inmates building successful lives, research continues to show that as many as 75% of justice-involved individuals find themselves back in the criminal justice system within the first year.